Mark the Spot

I can't be what you want me to be
What you need me to be Cause I won't, and I won't and I won't
And, it's far too easy to burn the bridge
To ensure the feeling never comes again
But I won't, yeah, I won't and I won't

And I'm sorry I couldn't love you like that Like you told yourself that you needed so bad
But you don't, and you don't and you don't
And when I've given you all that I have
And it's still not enough
Just know that's why I
Fall apart, I
Fall apart, I
Fall apart
So tell me
Mark the spot where I should have known
Mark the spot where I should have known
Where did I break your heart?
Tell me, where did I break your heart, darling?

Could you just tear me apart?
Destroy all I am before you send me to the dark
And I will not say a word
We've been here before
Throwing arms into battle
but we haven't won the war
So, will you bury me deep
With a gun in my hand
Lead me off unsteady
Into the promised land
And I will carve my words
Into the back of my teeth
While you shout to the land
But your words will never reach me
While you shout to the land
But your words will never reach me
While you shout to the land

But your words will never reach me
Don't forget it, don't forget it
Justify it any way
To help you better deal with the pain
Don't forget it, don't forget it
Justify it any way
To help you better deal with the pain
